Hempsted Children and Families Newsletter

Hello and happy November! I hope you had a fun half term holiday. There will be lots of good things happening in term two. I'm especially looking forward to working with the children in Worship Club again, where we are planning Collective Worship which will focus on the school value of friendship. The children already have some great ideas!

This photo is from our Climate Sunday walk to Hempsted Well in September. The trees in the background are close to where young trees will be planted later this month as part of the new woodland. This is great news for Hempsted and the environment! Our next Messy Church is on 28th November. Find out about Advent through Bible stories, crafts, music and activities and begin your journey to Bethlehem!
